

The Intelligencer

MAJORS might send his congratulations to the... How now? Is it all up with the g. o. p. or not?

Has County Commissioner Stein a ring in somebody's nose? That's the question.

The pension swindler must go! All honest men must band together against him to protect his prey.

Seeing that Virginia gave Hancock 43,000 majority the Bourbon majority this time isn't the appearance of a cyclone.

New York does pretty well for a doubtful State which brushed the doubt aside with a boom 102,000 feet long one short year ago.

To a man up a tree it looks as though there is enough left of the Republican party to tie. Its sands of life are not nearly run out.

Is Richmond they had to orate over it. Those Richmond people can do and bear more of that kind of thing than any community in the country.

The Senatorial campaign in Ohio is overshadowing the Presidential election. Ohio is a very great State, and the whole Democratic party thereof has the big head.

His Excellency of West Virginia gives us a Thanksgiving Day in a blaze of glory. Oh, musing Muses, come and polish a wishbone with us on that festive day!

The alleged pension agent who comes around fortively to scold pensioners over a waiting list for a small fee in hand—is a fine figure for the looper. Let the dog hold him until the police come.

Is Mr. Porter's trifling letters from England and France were call and bitterness to the noble army of free traders, what shall be of his letters from France, in which he rails salt into the gaping wound?

Query: If the intimidation of negroes is necessary to carry Virginia for the Bourbons, what will be necessary to hold it for the same liberty-loving party? Softly—the witness is not obliged to criminate himself.

The reelection of Mayor Low, of Brooklyn, is a triumph for good government. Fanning his own business he has given his attention to public affairs and wrought a revolution in the ring-ridden city of Brooklyn.

There is another spec of war on the newspaper horizon. Editor Bickham, of the Dayton Journal, and Editor Cowles, of the Cleveland Leader, are the powers. Each side has chosen the Rogne's Dictionary for its weapon.

Seaman, of Duke's trial fame, went down in the wreck. He may take to the penitent's bench, but he can't sit on the bench of Greene and Fayette counties. His was a bold break to reach the crumple over a dead man's intamy.

The beathen Chinese, bound to circumvent our restricted immigration law, slips into the country with a whole pack of brother heathens up his sleeve. It is barely possible that the celestials are coming in disguised as thin chests.

Not the trouble begins. Not to be outdone in hospitality, we suggest Wheeling as the place for the next Republican National convention. If we can't accommodate everybody on the spot there is plenty of house room from Bellaire to Pittsburgh.

Ran once more the resolution of the Republican National Committee under which the next National Convention is to be called. That call is just broad enough to fit each State. No party can be more liberal and continue to be a party.

Let's see—how was that? The Republicans of Pennsylvania were so far apart that they never could come together again, or words to that effect. What is now bothering the Democratic party of that State is how to get its fingers out of the fire.

It is well known to be told that the new English hangman is satisfied with his first job, but since the matter is worth mentioning at all, it would be something more to know what his first subject thought of his work. It makes some difference whose or is pored.

That English newspaper doesn't understand its business. The real thing in the way of newspaper enterprise is to give the odious telegraph company the go-by and take the special dispatch with the scissors. But these English newspapers are poky old things at best.

O'Donnell may have felt it his mission to murder Carey the informer, but this is no reason why American sympathizers with the cause of Ireland shall permit themselves to be killed by the Irish-American syndicate. O'Donnell's defence promise to be another grasshopper sufferer, and the more delays the better.

Robert G. Ingersoll, Esq., of Washington, D. C.: Sir—Don't you think it about time you go to stop ending over the alleged desertion of the colored man by the Republican party? Do you hope to sail into something great and good on a tide of tears—crocodile tears—or are you merely "whooping 'em up" for the lecture business?

Patti isn't pleased with the grand reception she was to have had and didn't get on her arrival in New York. Instead of the ten things which were to go down the bay to take her off the ship there was not even one to take her off. Even the splendid flag which she says had her name on it remained furled. But the diva recovers her composure long enough to tell about catching a three pound fish in Wales and to give the pap Nicolini a chance to come in with a thirty pound whopper. Now if Nicolini has come to this country to swag fish like West Virginia wants to know it. We have some talent of our own.

TUESDAY'S TUSSELE, OR THE BALLOT BOX BATTLE

In the Prominent States—Carr is Certainly Elected in New York—Butler's Defeat Assured. Connecticut Legislature Overwhelmingly Republican—News from Other States.

ALBANY, N. Y., November 7.—In returns received up to 10 A. M. the Evening Journal claims Carr's election by 13,000. There is a strong probability of Sexton's election, and a possibility of Davenport and Russell. The Legislature is surely Republican in both branches.

MAJOR LOW is re-elected in Brooklyn by a majority of 1,529.

ALBANY, N. Y., November 7.—The Argus estimates the election of the Democratic State ticket except Maynard by 10,000 majority. Carr's majority is about 16,000. The Republicans have 19 Senators and 70 Assemblymen.

MASSACHUSETTS. The Result in the Bay State—Robinson's Majority Over Butler.

BOSTON, November 7.—Additional returns give the Republicans 138 members of the Legislature to 92 Democrats and 1 Independent, with nine districts to hear from. Robinson's total vote thus far is 158,555, and Butler's 150,013, with four towns to hear from. The total vote for Lieutenant Governor gives Ames 12,000 to 14,000 plurality.

BOSTON, November 7.—The Executive Council will stand: Republicans, 5; Democrats, 4; a gain of 2 Democrats over last year.

NOW, BEN, YOU DON'T MEAN IT. Butler's Views on His Defeat—The Iron in His Soul.

PITTSBURGH, November 7.—The Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette this evening telegraphed Gen. B. F. Butler for his views on the result in Massachusetts and asking for his programme for the future. The following characteristic reply was received:

BOSTON, MASS., November 7, P. M. To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette:

An answer to your question is easy. As to the cause of the result in Massachusetts, last year, I had one hundred and thirty-four thousand votes. The next year I had one hundred and thirty-four thousand votes. The next year I had one hundred and thirty-four thousand votes. The next year I had one hundred and thirty-four thousand votes.

The reelection of Mayor Low, of Brooklyn, is a triumph for good government. Fanning his own business he has given his attention to public affairs and wrought a revolution in the ring-ridden city of Brooklyn.

There is another spec of war on the newspaper horizon. Editor Bickham, of the Dayton Journal, and Editor Cowles, of the Cleveland Leader, are the powers. Each side has chosen the Rogne's Dictionary for its weapon.

Seaman, of Duke's trial fame, went down in the wreck. He may take to the penitent's bench, but he can't sit on the bench of Greene and Fayette counties. His was a bold break to reach the crumple over a dead man's intamy.

The beathen Chinese, bound to circumvent our restricted immigration law, slips into the country with a whole pack of brother heathens up his sleeve. It is barely possible that the celestials are coming in disguised as thin chests.

Not the trouble begins. Not to be outdone in hospitality, we suggest Wheeling as the place for the next Republican National convention. If we can't accommodate everybody on the spot there is plenty of house room from Bellaire to Pittsburgh.

Ran once more the resolution of the Republican National Committee under which the next National Convention is to be called. That call is just broad enough to fit each State. No party can be more liberal and continue to be a party.

Let's see—how was that? The Republicans of Pennsylvania were so far apart that they never could come together again, or words to that effect. What is now bothering the Democratic party of that State is how to get its fingers out of the fire.

It is well known to be told that the new English hangman is satisfied with his first job, but since the matter is worth mentioning at all, it would be something more to know what his first subject thought of his work. It makes some difference whose or is pored.

That English newspaper doesn't understand its business. The real thing in the way of newspaper enterprise is to give the odious telegraph company the go-by and take the special dispatch with the scissors. But these English newspapers are poky old things at best.

O'Donnell may have felt it his mission to murder Carey the informer, but this is no reason why American sympathizers with the cause of Ireland shall permit themselves to be killed by the Irish-American syndicate. O'Donnell's defence promise to be another grasshopper sufferer, and the more delays the better.

Robert G. Ingersoll, Esq., of Washington, D. C.: Sir—Don't you think it about time you go to stop ending over the alleged desertion of the colored man by the Republican party? Do you hope to sail into something great and good on a tide of tears—crocodile tears—or are you merely "whooping 'em up" for the lecture business?

Patti isn't pleased with the grand reception she was to have had and didn't get on her arrival in New York. Instead of the ten things which were to go down the bay to take her off the ship there was not even one to take her off. Even the splendid flag which she says had her name on it remained furled. But the diva recovers her composure long enough to tell about catching a three pound fish in Wales and to give the pap Nicolini a chance to come in with a thirty pound whopper. Now if Nicolini has come to this country to swag fish like West Virginia wants to know it. We have some talent of our own.

THE NEXT CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

The Call of the Secretary of the National Committee for a Meeting in Washington to Decide on a Place for Holding the next Convention. Rules Governing Election of Delegates.

ATCHISON, KAN., November 7.—Colonel John A. Martin, Secretary of the National Republican Committee, sent out to-day the following call for a meeting of the Republican National Committee, to be held at the Arlington House, Washington, D. C., on Wednesday, December 12, 1883, at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of deciding upon the date and place for holding the next National Republican Convention.

PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—Returns at 1:30 this afternoon indicate that the Democrats have carried the State by between 10,000 and 15,000 majority.

RICHMOND, VA., November 7.—The result of the election causes the wildest excitement. In the street in front of the Dispatch office the pavement is blocked with an immense mass of people, and business is suspended, speaker after speaker making stirring addresses.

RICHMOND, VA., November 7.—The Senate stands: Democrats, 22; Coalition, 13; abstent, 5. House of Representatives: Democrats, 97; Coalition, 29; doubtful, 12. What the doubtful counties are heard from the Democratic majority on joint ballot will probably reach 25.

WHAT ROB SAYS. Ingersoll on the Recent Elections and Ben Butler's Convay.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll, before the result was known, said: "I hope Ben Butler is beaten in Massachusetts. I have watched the campaign pretty closely and it has seemed to me that he has been willing to sacrifice party principle for personal ends. Everything in this world for Ben Butler. He had simply his own egotism and vanity to satisfy. His campaign has been purely a selfish one. He has been against every-thing and everything but Butler, and that is not a credit to him. Look at the result. He has lost. I hope he is beaten, and I hope, too, that Mahone has been successful in Virginia, but I am afraid he hasn't. The Danville riot probably frightened the negroes, and had the result that it was intended to have. Look at the result. He has lost. I hope he is beaten, and I hope, too, that Mahone has been successful in Virginia, but I am afraid he hasn't.

OHIO SENATORSHIP. Payne's Check Book—Bookwater and the Anti-Pendleton Committee.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—The talk among Ohio men, and especially of Ohio Democrats here, about the Senatorship is becoming interesting. The anti-Pendleton crowd seem to think that in some way they can muster Thurman into their ranks, as a sort of reserve, to be brought up and used in case the first line cannot carry the election for itself. But Thurman's friends, who have an intuition of the matter, are expected to play, say with some show of indignation, that he is not likely to lend himself to any dirty work for his old enemies. As a first step it seems that Mr. H. B. Payne is being put forward as a good figure-head for the anti-Pendleton party.

THE PRESIDENT RECEIVES RETURN. He is Pleased When Informed of the Result of the Day.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—The President remained in his room late yesterday, and Secretary Phillips reported to him what news he could learn about the election. In one instance, when New York City was the subject of conversation between correspondents and the Secretary, the Executive could not restrain his curiosity long enough and hurried into the Cabinet room, where he could hear the news himself. His face brightened perceptibly when it was stated the indications pointed to a substantial Republican victory. Dinner was kept waiting at the Soldiers' home Cottage last evening, as the President remained in his office till nearly dark in order to receive additional returns.

Nebraska. LINCOLN, NEB., November 7.—The returns at 10 o'clock to-night show Republican gain gains in almost every county on the State ticket. Reese, Republican, is elected Supreme Judge by 10,000 majority. Broady, Democrat, is elected in the First Judicial District by 3,500 majority. Three other districts are heard from, and are supposed to be in doubt. The Republicans elect seven Judges. Very few counties elect the straight Republican tickets; many are mixed, some give Republican majorities on the State ticket, and no return county tickets; others are the reverse.

Laugh While You Can. COLUMBUS, O., November 7.—Great interest was manifested throughout South Carolina in the result of the Virginia election, and when Mahone's defeat was received in this city the enthusiasm of the people was unbounded. The Columbia artillery fired a salute in honor of the event.

Kansas Elections. WICHITA, November 7.—The returns for the Eighteenth Judicial District, comprising six counties, are nearly all in H. C. Sloss, Republican, is elected over A. Harris, present incumbent, by about 10,000 votes. The entire Republican ticket in Sedwick County is elected except Sheriff.

FAILURES IN MICHIGAN. Another Lumber Firm Goes Under and Makes an Assignment.

KALAMAZOO, MICH., November 7.—Kellogg, Sawyer & Co., lumber manufacturers of this place, made an assignment to-day to Edward Byles, of Darry, Michigan. The liabilities are in the neighborhood of $275,000. The assets of the firm are $485,000. Besides individual property of $30,000 to $40,000, the assets comprise 60,000,000 feet of standing pine in Oscoda county, Michigan; a sawmill running 200 hands; logging railroad, and $90,000 worth of manufactured lumber, equipment and other property.

NEW JERSEY. Abbot Elected Governor by Over Five Thousand Majority.

NEWARK, N. J., November 7.—The latest returns from yesterday's election give Abbot 5,500 majority. Senate, 12 Republicans and 9 Democrats. Assembly, 20 Republicans and 34 Democrats. The Democratic majority on joint ballot will be 5.

MISSISSIPPI ELECTIONS. JACKSON, MISS., November 7.—The latest returns show a change in the result of the election as announced last night, except Panola county, where the Fusion ticket was defeated by a small majority. Adams, Hinds, Madison and Monroe counties give good Fusion majorities. The regular Democratic ticket had little opposition elsewhere.

ACTIEN ON THE TRADE DOLLAR. CINCINNATI, November 7.—The Directors of the Board of Trade and Transportation, at their meeting to-day, adopted the report of the Committee on Drawing the Trade Dollar, Naisance, and recommending a memorial to Congress for its redemption.

A Political Quarrel Terminates Fatally. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—In a disturbance last night at Wakefield, after the polls were closed, several shots were exchanged. A colored man named D. J. Jones was shot fatally. No arrests. The case was a political disturbance.

THE COKE SYNDICATE. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—The stockholders of the immense coke manufacturing company of H. C. Frick & Co., met to-day and increased the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. It was reported that Vanderbilt had taken an additional million but this was denied by H. C. Frick, who says the object of increasing the stock is to pay for the coke property which the firm recently purchased.

THE COKE SYNDICATE. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—The stockholders of the immense coke manufacturing company of H. C. Frick & Co., met to-day and increased the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. It was reported that Vanderbilt had taken an additional million but this was denied by H. C. Frick, who says the object of increasing the stock is to pay for the coke property which the firm recently purchased.

THE COKE SYNDICATE. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—The stockholders of the immense coke manufacturing company of H. C. Frick & Co., met to-day and increased the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. It was reported that Vanderbilt had taken an additional million but this was denied by H. C. Frick, who says the object of increasing the stock is to pay for the coke property which the firm recently purchased.

THE COKE SYNDICATE. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—The stockholders of the immense coke manufacturing company of H. C. Frick & Co., met to-day and increased the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. It was reported that Vanderbilt had taken an additional million but this was denied by H. C. Frick, who says the object of increasing the stock is to pay for the coke property which the firm recently purchased.

THE COKE SYNDICATE. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—The stockholders of the immense coke manufacturing company of H. C. Frick & Co., met to-day and increased the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. It was reported that Vanderbilt had taken an additional million but this was denied by H. C. Frick, who says the object of increasing the stock is to pay for the coke property which the firm recently purchased.

THE COKE SYNDICATE. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—The stockholders of the immense coke manufacturing company of H. C. Frick & Co., met to-day and increased the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. It was reported that Vanderbilt had taken an additional million but this was denied by H. C. Frick, who says the object of increasing the stock is to pay for the coke property which the firm recently purchased.

THE NEXT CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

The Call of the Secretary of the National Committee for a Meeting in Washington to Decide on a Place for Holding the next Convention. Rules Governing Election of Delegates.

ATCHISON, KAN., November 7.—Colonel John A. Martin, Secretary of the National Republican Committee, sent out to-day the following call for a meeting of the Republican National Committee, to be held at the Arlington House, Washington, D. C., on Wednesday, December 12, 1883, at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of deciding upon the date and place for holding the next National Republican Convention.

PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—Returns at 1:30 this afternoon indicate that the Democrats have carried the State by between 10,000 and 15,000 majority.

RICHMOND, VA., November 7.—The result of the election causes the wildest excitement. In the street in front of the Dispatch office the pavement is blocked with an immense mass of people, and business is suspended, speaker after speaker making stirring addresses.

RICHMOND, VA., November 7.—The Senate stands: Democrats, 22; Coalition, 13; abstent, 5. House of Representatives: Democrats, 97; Coalition, 29; doubtful, 12. What the doubtful counties are heard from the Democratic majority on joint ballot will probably reach 25.

WHAT ROB SAYS. Ingersoll on the Recent Elections and Ben Butler's Convay.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll, before the result was known, said: "I hope Ben Butler is beaten in Massachusetts. I have watched the campaign pretty closely and it has seemed to me that he has been willing to sacrifice party principle for personal ends. Everything in this world for Ben Butler. He had simply his own egotism and vanity to satisfy. His campaign has been purely a selfish one. He has been against every-thing and everything but Butler, and that is not a credit to him. Look at the result. He has lost. I hope he is beaten, and I hope, too, that Mahone has been successful in Virginia, but I am afraid he hasn't. The Danville riot probably frightened the negroes, and had the result that it was intended to have. Look at the result. He has lost. I hope he is beaten, and I hope, too, that Mahone has been successful in Virginia, but I am afraid he hasn't.

OHIO SENATORSHIP. Payne's Check Book—Bookwater and the Anti-Pendleton Committee.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—The talk among Ohio men, and especially of Ohio Democrats here, about the Senatorship is becoming interesting. The anti-Pendleton crowd seem to think that in some way they can muster Thurman into their ranks, as a sort of reserve, to be brought up and used in case the first line cannot carry the election for itself. But Thurman's friends, who have an intuition of the matter, are expected to play, say with some show of indignation, that he is not likely to lend himself to any dirty work for his old enemies. As a first step it seems that Mr. H. B. Payne is being put forward as a good figure-head for the anti-Pendleton party.

THE PRESIDENT RECEIVES RETURN. He is Pleased When Informed of the Result of the Day.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—The President remained in his room late yesterday, and Secretary Phillips reported to him what news he could learn about the election. In one instance, when New York City was the subject of conversation between correspondents and the Secretary, the Executive could not restrain his curiosity long enough and hurried into the Cabinet room, where he could hear the news himself. His face brightened perceptibly when it was stated the indications pointed to a substantial Republican victory. Dinner was kept waiting at the Soldiers' home Cottage last evening, as the President remained in his office till nearly dark in order to receive additional returns.

Nebraska. LINCOLN, NEB., November 7.—The returns at 10 o'clock to-night show Republican gain gains in almost every county on the State ticket. Reese, Republican, is elected Supreme Judge by 10,000 majority. Broady, Democrat, is elected in the First Judicial District by 3,500 majority. Three other districts are heard from, and are supposed to be in doubt. The Republicans elect seven Judges. Very few counties elect the straight Republican tickets; many are mixed, some give Republican majorities on the State ticket, and no return county tickets; others are the reverse.

Laugh While You Can. COLUMBUS, O., November 7.—Great interest was manifested throughout South Carolina in the result of the Virginia election, and when Mahone's defeat was received in this city the enthusiasm of the people was unbounded. The Columbia artillery fired a salute in honor of the event.

Kansas Elections. WICHITA, November 7.—The returns for the Eighteenth Judicial District, comprising six counties, are nearly all in H. C. Sloss, Republican, is elected over A. Harris, present incumbent, by about 10,000 votes. The entire Republican ticket in Sedwick County is elected except Sheriff.

FAILURES IN MICHIGAN. Another Lumber Firm Goes Under and Makes an Assignment.

KALAMAZOO, MICH., November 7.—Kellogg, Sawyer & Co., lumber manufacturers of this place, made an assignment to-day to Edward Byles, of Darry, Michigan. The liabilities are in the neighborhood of $275,000. The assets of the firm are $485,000. Besides individual property of $30,000 to $40,000, the assets comprise 60,000,000 feet of standing pine in Oscoda county, Michigan; a sawmill running 200 hands; logging railroad, and $90,000 worth of manufactured lumber, equipment and other property.

NEW JERSEY. Abbot Elected Governor by Over Five Thousand Majority.

NEWARK, N. J., November 7.—The latest returns from yesterday's election give Abbot 5,500 majority. Senate, 12 Republicans and 9 Democrats. Assembly, 20 Republicans and 34 Democrats. The Democratic majority on joint ballot will be 5.

MISSISSIPPI ELECTIONS. JACKSON, MISS., November 7.—The latest returns show a change in the result of the election as announced last night, except Panola county, where the Fusion ticket was defeated by a small majority. Adams, Hinds, Madison and Monroe counties give good Fusion majorities. The regular Democratic ticket had little opposition elsewhere.

ACTIEN ON THE TRADE DOLLAR. CINCINNATI, November 7.—The Directors of the Board of Trade and Transportation, at their meeting to-day, adopted the report of the Committee on Drawing the Trade Dollar, Naisance, and recommending a memorial to Congress for its redemption.

A Political Quarrel Terminates Fatally. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—In a disturbance last night at Wakefield, after the polls were closed, several shots were exchanged. A colored man named D. J. Jones was shot fatally. No arrests. The case was a political disturbance.

THE COKE SYNDICATE. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—The stockholders of the immense coke manufacturing company of H. C. Frick & Co., met to-day and increased the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. It was reported that Vanderbilt had taken an additional million but this was denied by H. C. Frick, who says the object of increasing the stock is to pay for the coke property which the firm recently purchased.

THE COKE SYNDICATE. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—The stockholders of the immense coke manufacturing company of H. C. Frick & Co., met to-day and increased the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. It was reported that Vanderbilt had taken an additional million but this was denied by H. C. Frick, who says the object of increasing the stock is to pay for the coke property which the firm recently purchased.

THE COKE SYNDICATE. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—The stockholders of the immense coke manufacturing company of H. C. Frick & Co., met to-day and increased the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. It was reported that Vanderbilt had taken an additional million but this was denied by H. C. Frick, who says the object of increasing the stock is to pay for the coke property which the firm recently purchased.

THE COKE SYNDICATE. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—The stockholders of the immense coke manufacturing company of H. C. Frick & Co., met to-day and increased the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. It was reported that Vanderbilt had taken an additional million but this was denied by H. C. Frick, who says the object of increasing the stock is to pay for the coke property which the firm recently purchased.

THE COKE SYNDICATE. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—The stockholders of the immense coke manufacturing company of H. C. Frick & Co., met to-day and increased the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. It was reported that Vanderbilt had taken an additional million but this was denied by H. C. Frick, who says the object of increasing the stock is to pay for the coke property which the firm recently purchased.

THE COKE SYNDICATE. PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—The stockholders of the immense coke manufacturing company of H. C. Frick & Co., met to-day and increased the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. It was reported that Vanderbilt had taken an additional million but this was denied by H. C. Frick, who says the object of increasing the stock is to pay for the coke property which the firm recently purchased.

THE NEXT CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

The Call of the Secretary of the National Committee for a Meeting in Washington to Decide on a Place for Holding the next Convention. Rules Governing Election of Delegates.

ATCHISON, KAN., November 7.—Colonel John A. Martin, Secretary of the National Republican Committee, sent out to-day the following call for a meeting of the Republican National Committee, to be held at the Arlington House, Washington, D. C., on Wednesday, December 12, 1883, at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of deciding upon the date and place for holding the next National Republican Convention.

PITTSBURGH, PA., November 7.—Returns at 1:30 this afternoon indicate that the Democrats have carried the State by between 10,000 and 15,000 majority.

RICHMOND, VA., November 7.—The result of the election causes the wildest excitement. In the street in front of the Dispatch office the pavement is blocked with an immense mass of people, and business is suspended, speaker after speaker making stirring addresses.

RICHMOND, VA., November 7.—The Senate stands: Democrats, 22; Coalition, 13; abstent, 5. House of Representatives: Democrats, 97; Coalition, 29; doubtful, 12. What the doubtful counties are heard from the Democratic majority on joint ballot will probably reach 25.

WHAT ROB SAYS. Ingersoll on the Recent Elections and Ben Butler's Convay.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll, before the result was known, said: "I hope Ben Butler is beaten in Massachusetts. I have watched the campaign pretty closely and it has seemed to me that he has been willing to sacrifice party principle for personal ends. Everything in this world for Ben Butler. He had simply his own egotism and vanity to satisfy. His campaign has been purely a selfish one. He has been against every-thing and everything but Butler, and that is not a credit to him. Look at the result. He has lost. I hope he is beaten, and I hope, too, that Mahone has been successful in Virginia, but I am afraid he hasn't. The Danville riot probably frightened the negroes, and had the result that it was intended to have. Look at the result. He has lost. I hope he is beaten, and I hope, too, that Mahone has been successful in Virginia, but I am afraid he hasn't.

OHIO SENATORSHIP. Payne's Check Book—Bookwater and the Anti-Pendleton Committee.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—The talk among Ohio men, and especially of Ohio Democrats here, about the Senatorship is becoming interesting. The anti-Pendleton crowd seem to think that in some way they can muster Thurman into their ranks, as a sort of reserve, to be brought up and used in case the first line cannot carry the election for itself. But Thurman's friends, who have an intuition of the matter, are expected to play, say with some show of indignation, that he is not likely to lend himself to any dirty work for his old enemies. As a first step it seems that Mr. H. B. Payne is being put forward as a good figure-head for the anti-Pendleton party.

THE PRESIDENT RECEIVES RETURN. He is Pleased When Informed of the Result of the Day.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—The President remained in his room late yesterday, and Secretary Phillips reported to him what news he could learn about the election. In one instance, when New York City was the subject of conversation between correspondents and the Secretary, the Executive could not restrain his curiosity long enough and hurried into the Cabinet room, where he could hear the news himself. His face brightened perceptibly when it was stated the indications pointed to a substantial Republican victory. Dinner was kept waiting at the Soldiers' home Cottage last evening, as the President remained in his office till nearly dark in order to receive additional returns.

Nebraska. LINCOLN, NEB., November 7.—The returns at 10 o'clock to-night show Republican gain gains in almost every county on the State ticket. Reese, Republican, is elected Supreme Judge by 10,000 majority. Broady, Democrat, is elected in the First Judicial District by 3,500 majority. Three other districts are heard from, and are supposed to be in doubt. The Republicans elect seven Judges. Very few counties elect the straight Republican tickets; many are mixed, some give Republican majorities on the State ticket, and no return county tickets; others are the reverse.

Laugh While You Can. COLUMBUS, O., November 7.—Great interest was manifested throughout South Carolina in the result of the Virginia election, and when Mahone's defeat was received in this city the enthusiasm of the people was unbounded. The Columbia artillery fired a salute in honor of the event.

Kansas Elections. WICHITA, November 7.—The returns for the Eighteenth Judicial District, comprising six counties, are nearly all in H. C. Sloss, Republican, is elected over A. Harris, present incumbent, by about 10,000 votes. The entire Republican ticket in Sedwick County is elected except Sheriff.

FAILURES IN MICHIGAN. Another Lumber Firm Goes Under and Makes an Assignment.

KALAMAZOO, MICH., November 7.—Kellogg, Sawyer & Co., lumber manufacturers of this place, made an assignment to-day to Edward Byles, of Darry, Michigan. The liabilities are in the neighborhood of $275,000. The assets of the firm are $485,000. Besides individual property of $30,000 to $40,000, the assets comprise 60,000,000 feet of standing pine in Oscoda county, Michigan; a sawmill running 200 hands; logging railroad, and $90,000 worth of manufactured lumber, equipment and other property.

NEW JERSEY. Abbot Elected Governor by Over Five Thousand Majority.

NEWARK, N. J., November 7.—The latest returns from yesterday's election give Abbot 5,500 majority. Senate, 12 Republicans and 9 Democrats. Assembly, 20 Republicans and 34 Democrats. The Democratic majority on joint ballot will be 5.

MISSISSIPPI ELECTIONS. JACKSON, MISS., November 7.—The latest returns show a change in the result of the election as announced last night, except Panola county, where the Fusion ticket was defeated by a small majority. Adams, Hinds, Madison and Monroe counties give good Fusion majorities. The regular Democratic ticket had little opposition elsewhere.

ACTIEN ON THE TRADE DOLLAR